

MATTHEW CLICK
Director – Government Affairs
Florida's Turnpike Enterprise

Matthew Click is the Director of Government Affairs for Florida's Turnpike Enterprise, a unit of the Florida Department of Transportation, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer.

His duties include leading government affairs for the Enterprise, managing special projects for executive management and coordinating with elected officials, transportation agencies, and other interest groups.

Before taking on his current role Mr. Click was a Senior Planner focused on master planning, customer surveys and planning feasibility studies for the Enterprise. Mr. Click has worked with the Enterprise for eight years and has over ten years of planning and project management experience.

Mr. Click earned both a Master of Science in Planning and Bachelor of Science in Political Science from Florida State University; and is a certified planner by the American Institute of Certified Planners.

"Keeping Florida Moving!"

