

DAVID. R. MICA
Executive Director
Florida Petroleum Council

David R. Mica joined the Florida Petroleum Council as Associate Director in July 1985, and became its Executive Director in August 1998.

Mr. Mica is a graduate of the University of Florida where he obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science.

He began his career as a district assistant to then U.S. Senator Lawton Chiles and later moved into legislative advocacy as the director of legislative affairs for the Florida Farm Bureau Federation.

Now in his 21st year with the Council, Mr. Mica is active in both community and statewide organizations.

He is a founder and past Chairman of the Board of Directors of Keep Florida Beautiful, and during his tenure, the group was recognized as the outstanding state affiliate.

He is a graduate of Leadership Florida Class XV and serves as its Northwest Florida Regional Chair.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Florida Society of Association Executives and also a member of its Foundation Board.

A 1977 graduate of the University of Florida, Mr. Mica is past president of the University of Florida National Alumni Association and was honored by the University as an outstanding Political Science graduate in 2004, and was recognized by the University as the "2005 Distinguished Gator Lobbying Friend".

Mr. Mica and his wife, Karen, reside in Tallahassee and have three children, David Jr., Julianne, and Allison.

"Moving Florida Forward!"

