

JANET WATERMEIER
Vice Chair
Floridians for Better Transportation (FBT)

Janet Watermeier is President of Watermeier Property Services, LLC, Ft. Myers, FL - a consulting and real estate resource firm providing market information development consulting services and project feasibility analysis specializing in the Southwest Florida market. Select clients include Lee County, Charlotte County, Mayor of Fort Myers, Florida Gulf Coast University, The News-Press, and numerous private investment, business and real estate development clients.

Janet, has been active in Florida economic and real estate development at both the state and local level for over 15 years.

She served as Lee County's Economic Development Director, Industrial Development Authority Director and Community Redevelopment Agency Director for over 7 years.

Prior to her public sector experience, she served as Vice President of West Coast Commercial Operations for Westinghouse Communities, Inc. (WCI).

She currently is on the Southwest Florida Regional Planning Council and the Southwest Florida International Airport Special Management Committee. Appointed by Governor Jeb Bush, she served on Florida's Transportation Commission, and is now Vice Chair of Floridians for Better Transportation (FBT).

EDUCATION:

- University of Buffalo, School of Law, Buffalo, NY – 1978
- Old Dominion University, School of Business, Norfolk, VA 1970-1974
- B.A. in Economics, Graduated Magna Cum Laud,
- A.D. Morgan Scholarship recipient, International Honor Society, Research Assistant.

"Moving Florida Forward!"

