

Kathy Ruffalo is a government affairs consultant with over 20 years of public policy experience at both federal and state levels of government.

From 1989 to 1999, Kathy served as a senior Democratic policy advisor to the United States Environment and Public Works Committee with the primary responsibility for developing, drafting and negotiating federal transportation policy. During her tenure with the Committee, Kathy worked on the ISTEA, National Highway System and TEA-21 legislation.

From 1999 to 2004, Kathy left Washington to become a senior policy advisor to Idaho Governor Dirk Kempthorne.

Kathy returned to Capitol Hill and the Environment and Public Works Committee in 2005 to work on the SAFETEA-LU legislation.

Most recently, Ms. Ruffalo was appointed by the United States Congress to be a member of the National Surface Transportation Infrastructure Financing Commission.

Ms. Ruffalo is a 1989 graduate of Northwestern University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Engineering and Management Sciences.